

MASTER FARM MANAGER

Tennessee

Master Farm Manager

Horticulture Focus

Warren County | DeKalb County

Master Farm Manager focuses on solid business principles to help you make informed decisions and utilize resources effectively on the farm. This in-person program will focus on horticulture operations. Participants who complete the program by attending the four evening sessions will be eligible for TAEP cost share.

Eligibility for 50% cost share

Course Cost: $125 - Dinner will be provided | Time: 6 pm - 8 pm

February 6	UT Extension Warren County 201 Locust St., McMinnville, TN	Rachel Painter	Business Planning and Recordkeeping
February 13	UT Extension Warren County 201 Locust St., McMinnville, TN	Dr. Alicia Rihn	Marketing and Consumer Preferences in Horticulture
February 20	UT Extension, DeKalb County 722 S Congress Blvd., Smithville, TN	Tori Griffin	Tax Planning and Risk Management
February 27	UT Extension, DeKalb County 722 S Congress Blvd., Smithville, TN	Colton McClanahan and Bradley Covert	Economic Outlook and Estate Planning

Register by February 1, 2025 by visiting the Warren County office or by completing the below registration and mailing with $125 fee to:

UT-TSU Extension, Warren County
201 Locust St., Suite 10,
McMinnville, TN 37110

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Address: _____ City: _____ State: TN

Zip: _____ Email: _____

Master Farm Manager 2025

Contact the Warren County Extension Office with Questions: (931) 473-8484 | Heath Nokes hnokes@utk.edu